COMPANY, CLUBS AND PARTNERSHIP LAW

Members of Chambers have expertise in the wide range of issues that may arise during the creation, life and dissolution of a company, club or partnership. Recent work includes advice, drafting and litigation on:

- applications to rectify the shareholders' register
- articles of association
- club rules
- Companies Court applications
- directors' disqualification
- directors' duties and personal liabilities
- incorporating clubs
- shareholders', club members' and partnership disputes
- the maintenance and reduction of share capital (including financial assistance in the purchase of shares)

Members of these Chambers have written and lectured widely on developments in these areas. Recent articles include: "Reshaping criminal sanctions in company law" [Comp. Law 2003, 24(1) 1 - 2], "Codifying directors' duties: better in principle than in practice?" [Comp. Law, 2002, 23(9) 261 - 262] and "Section 727 relief from liability - redundant or relevant?" [Sweet & Maxwell's Company Law Newsletter, Issue 3/2002].
